LO: To make predictions about a story

This half term we are going to be looking at the book Borka by John Burningham.

Talk for writing

Look at this picture from the book.

What do you think it is happening and why?

Who is this character? Describe them.

Where do you think the story is set?

What else happens and how do you think the story ends?

Write a few sentences predicting what you think the story is about.

Don't forget to use capital letters and full stops!
