LO: To use question marks

A question mark is a special kind of full stop which shows that the sentence is a question.

These sentences start with who, what, where, when or why.

Think of questions to ask Borka. Say them out loud first.

For example.

Why are you crying?

Now write down some of the questions you would like to ask Borka.

Don't forget to finish the sentence with a question mark.

Stepping Stone Activity:

What questions would you like to ask Borka? Say them out loud.

Copy out these sentences and add question marks.

Why are you crying

What kind of bird are you

Where do you live

What did your mummy make you

Where happened to your family
