Borka lesson 16

Monday 22nd June 2020

LO: To write in the first person

Imagine you are Borka.

Can you change these sentences to the first person using,

I me or my?

Remember to use a capital

The captain left Borka at Kew Gardens.

She was sad to say goodbye.

They promised to visit her.

The geese at Kew did not mind that Borka had no feathers.

Nobody laughed at her grey woollen jersey.

Ferdinand cared for Borka and taught her to swim really well.

Now copy them up in your best handwriting.

Stepping Stone Activity:

Imagine you are Borka.

Can you change these sentences to the first person using

Borka lived in England.

She had no feathers.

She went on a boat.

She lived in Kew Gardens.
