Borka lesson 17

Tuesday 23rd June 2020

LO: To write in the first person

Reread this description of Borka at Kew Gardens.

The geese at Kew Gardens did not mind that Borka had no feathers. There were already so many strange kinds of birds in the gardens. Nobody laughed at her grey jersey and all the geese were very friendly, especially one called Ferdinand. Ferdinand cared for Borka and taught her to swim really well. She is still living there happily and whenever Captain McAllister and Fred and Fowler come to London they call in to see her.

Now imagine Borka writes a postcard to her family telling them about her life at Kew Gardens.

What kinds of things might she tell them? Tell a grown up.

Use these sentence starters to help you...

At Kew Gardens I feel because....

I have met...

I have learnt to...

Sometimes Captain McAllister, Fred and Fowler...

Dear Family,
