

Text: Into the Forest

Look at the activities and choose the one that is best for you.

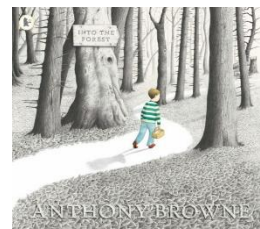

Red hot is for people who want extra challenge.

Spicy is suitable for most.

Mild is good for children who need to build confidence, or have no one to help.

(Day 3)

Reading Skill: Making Links

Grandma!

“Come here, love,” she sniffed. “How are you?”

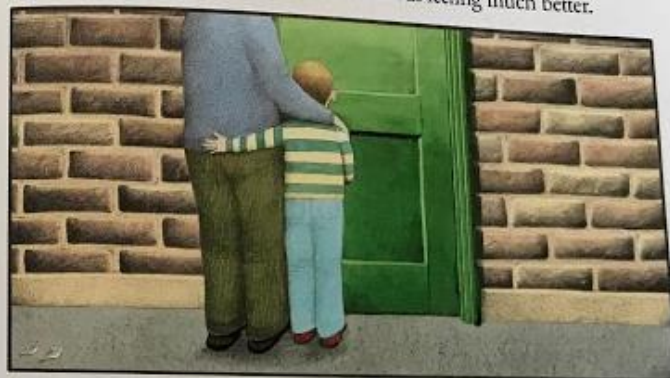

“I’m all right now,” I said.

Then, I heard a noise behind me and turned round...

DAD!

I told them everything that had happened. We all had a hot drink and I ate two pieces of Mum’s delicious cake. Then we said goodbye to Grandma, who was feeling much better.

When we got home I pushed open the door.

“Who’s there?” a voice called.

“It’s only us,” we said.

And Mum came out, smiling.

Red Hot

Task -Read the pages from the book and look closely at the illustrations.

1. Did the story end the way you predicted? What surprised you about the ending?
2. Where do you think Dad has been all this time?
3. How do you think the boy is feeling at the end of the story?

Look closely at the pictures of the forest below. Can you find these items in the illustrations and list the fairytales they are from, if you haven't already?

- A stag
- A beanstalk
- A wooden club
- A thatched cottage
- Three bears
- An axe
- Birds eating bread
- A house made of sweets
- A person behind a cage
- A wolf
- A tower with plaited hair through the window
- A knight on a white horse
- A pumpkin
- A key
- A shoe
- A spinning wheel
- A tabby cat
- A blackbird

Challenge: Write a book review for Into the Forest.
