

Text: The Dragon Machine

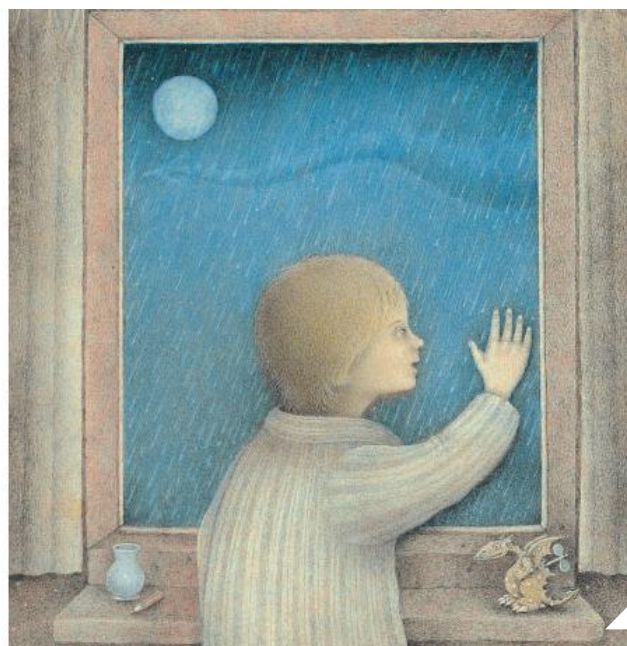

1.

2.

George noticed his first dragon on a wet Thursday.

The more he looked, the more dragons he saw!

Day 1

Reading Focus: Prediction

Success Criteria:

1. Look at the cover illustration
2. Read the title
3. Draw and label what you predict that the story is about
4. Read the extract
5. Write a prediction about what you think will happen with George and the dragons

My prediction:

For example:

I predict that the book is about a little boy called George who has a big imagination because he thinks that he sees dragons flying through the sky. I think that if George tells his parents about the dragons, they won't believe him and he will feel sad.
