Miss Mare the teacher shook her head.
“Now Sid, you shouldn’t lie,” she said.

“All dogs walk and jump and run,
but dogs don’t fly – it can’t be done.”

Example:

Miss Mare is angry because she has a hand on her hip and is pointing.

Day 3

Reading Focus: Inference

Success Criteria:

1. Read the text

2. Make inferences about the text based on the illustrations and what you have read

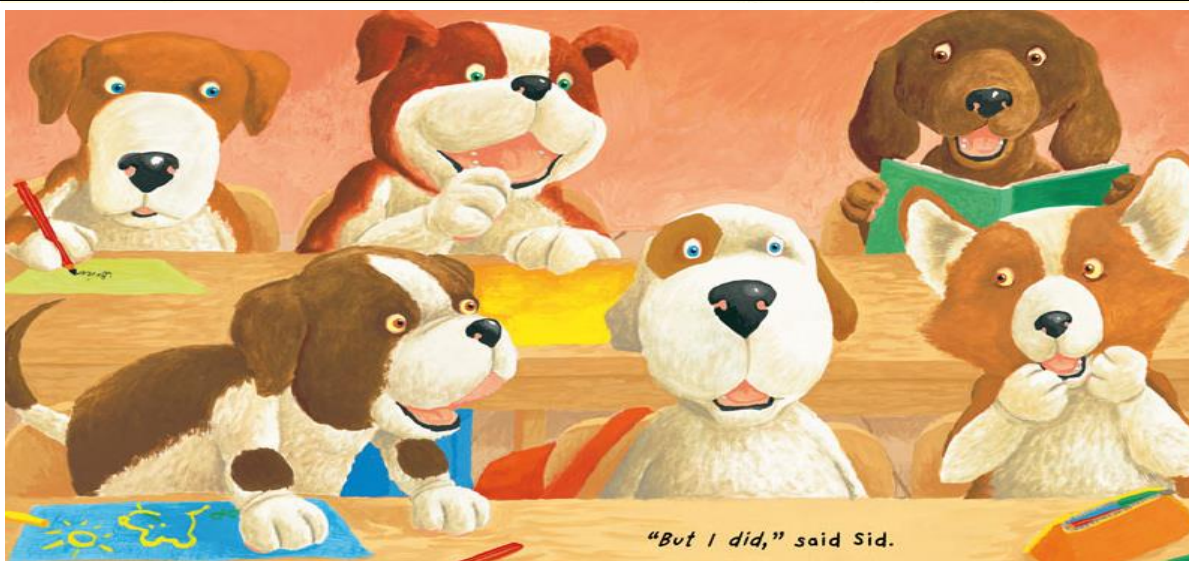

Miss Mare the teacher shook her head.
"Now Sid, you shouldn't lie," she said.

"All dogs walk and jump and run,
but dogs don't fly – it can't be done."

6.

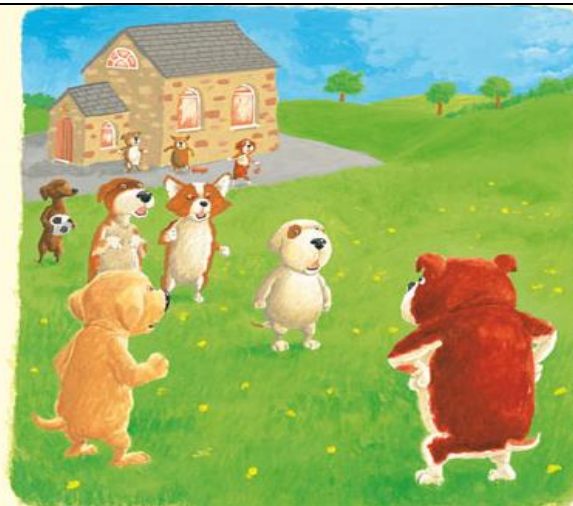

"But I did," said Sid.

7.

Gus said, "Right! If you can fly, come outside ... let's see you try!"

Sid's happiness had gone by then.
He tried to get it back again.

Day 3

Reading Focus: Inference

Success Criteria:

1. Read the text

2. Make inferences about the text based on the illustrations and what you have read

He thought about the clouds up high

and then he jumped towards the sky.

9.

"You see, you're just a dog," said Gus,
"with paws for walking just like us."

That will teach you not to lie.
Now you know that dogs don't fly."

10.

In your books, write a sentence about what you can infer that each of the characters is feeling, and why you think that.

For example: Miss Mare is angry and disappointed because she doesn't believe Sid is telling the truth about flying to school. She thinks that he is just being silly and wants to make everyone laugh.
