

Happy Tuesday Athena and Odysseus!

Today you are going to think about the mystery character on the front cover of our new book.

You will have to become a detective and look for clues to make inferences.

Take a look at my inferences below. I have looked for clues and have written down my thoughts, giving reasons for what I think.

Lesson 2 Steppingstone activity

Tuesday 21st April 2020

LO: To use adjectives to describe

Success Criteria:

- | |
|--|
| 1. Draw a picture of the character on the front page. |
| 2. Label your picture with adjectives to describe him. |

Challenge: Use your adjectives to write a full sentence about the character.

Lesson 2

Tuesday 21st April 2020

LO: To make predictions about a text based on images

Success Criteria:

1. Look at the picture of the character on the front page carefully.
2. Think about what our story could be about- look at all of the clues on the front cover.
3. Draw the character and colour them in neatly.
4. Write inferences about the character and give reasons for why you think what you do, using 'because' to give reasons.

EG: I think he might live in a cold place because he is wearing a woolly hat and a scarf.
