

Happy Wednesday Athena and Odysseus!

Here is today's extract from the text to read:

New vocabulary:

- |                    |                        |
|--------------------|------------------------|
| perched     | · resting on something |
| industrious | · hardworking          |
| tended      | · cared for            |

- |                                                                                              |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Read the extract from the text or ask an adult to read it to you.                         |
| 2. From the book so far, what do we know about Mr Grinling?                                  |
| 3. Draw a picture of Mr Grinling and label him with describing words or facts from the book. |

Challenge: Write a sentence to describe Mr Grinling, based on what we have read.

Lesson 3

Wednesday 22nd April 2020

LO: To create a character description

Success Criteria:

1. Read the extract.
2. Think about the character Mr Grinling and the information we know about him so far.
3. Draw a picture of Mr Grinling and around it, list the new facts that we have found out about him from what we have read so far.
4. Write a sentence to describe who the character is and what he does. Use key words from the text to help you!

Challenge: Rewrite the opening of our story. Here's mine:

There once lived an old lighthouse keeper called Mr. Grinling. When it was night time, he stayed in a cosy white cottage placed high up on the bumpy cliffs. In the day time, he slowly rowed all the way out to his beautiful lighthouse on the rocks. He worked hard to clean and polish the light so that it could shine for miles across the bright blue ocean.

Once there was a lighthouse keeper called Mr. Grinling. At night time he lived in a small white cottage perched high on the cliffs. In the day time he rowed out to his lighthouse on the rocks to clean and polish the light.