

Happy Tuesday Athena and Odysseus!

Beginning What happens at the beginning? Who are the main characters? Where is it set?	-Mr and Mrs Grinling and their cat Hamish. -Live in a cottage on a cliff, opposite a lighthouse.
--	---

adjectives, commas in list

adjective for character

On a large, rough cliff high above the sea there lived a friendly lighthouse keeper called Mr Grinling. He lived with his cat

conjunction

Hamish and his wife Mrs Grinling. They lived in a warm,

description

cosy cottage on the top of the large cliff, opposite a red and white lighthouse.

new sentence starter

In the daytime, Mr Grinling rowed out to his lighthouse on the

character description

rocks to clean the light. He was a hardworking lighthouse

contraction and conjunction

keeper and he didn't give up because he would do his jobs

vocabulary from text

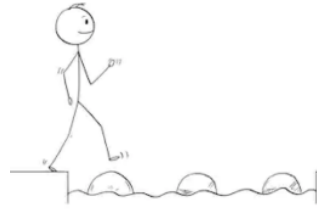

come rain or shine!

commas in lists

As Mr Grinling was far away from the small, white cottage,

key vocabulary from text

Mrs Grinling prepared his delicious, appetising lunch and sent it across to the lighthouse using a wire.

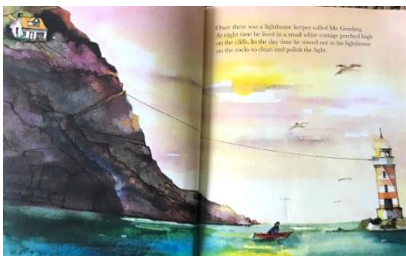

Year 2 Writing

Lesson 2 Steppingstone activity

Task:

- | |
|---|
| 1. Look at the pictures and sentences below. |
| 2. Fill in the gaps of the sentences and write the whole sentences out in your book with the gaps filled. |
| 3. Draw a picture underneath all of your writing for an illustration for the beginning of the story. |

1. Beginning of the story

Mr and Mrs Grinling lived _____ on _____.

Mr Grinling _____ the lighthouse.

Mrs Grinling _____ for Mr Grinling and sent it _____.

Year 2 Writing

Lesson 2

Success Criteria:

1. Read the example of a re-written beginning of the story.
2. Re-write each paragraph in your own words- remember we are only writing the beginning today.
3. Draw a picture for the beginning of your story underneath your writing.

adjectives, commas in list

adjective for character

On a large, rough cliff high above the sea there lived a friendly lighthouse keeper called Mr Grinling. He lived with his cat

conjunction

Hamish and his wife Mrs Grinling. They lived in a warm,

description

cosy cottage on the top of the large cliff, opposite a red and white lighthouse.

new sentence starter

In the daytime, Mr Grinling rowed out to his lighthouse on the

character description

rocks to clean the light. He was a hardworking lighthouse

contraction and conjunction

keeper and he didn't give up because he would do his jobs

vocabulary from text

come rain or shine!

commas in lists

As Mr Grinling was far away from the small, white cottage,

key vocabulary from text

Mrs Grinling prepared his delicious, appetising lunch and sent it across to the lighthouse using a wire.