

Summer 1 - Week 1 - Lesson 3

LO: To generate story ideas

Task

Lightning never strikes twice, does it?

That was the question that occupied their frightened minds as they crouched, huddling together, next to the pile of dusty sacks in the base of the windmill.

It's time to use your imagination!

TASK 1: DRAW A PICTURE

Success Criteria:

1. Read the text again very carefully
2. Draw the setting
3. Draw the people you think are in the windmill
4. Show how they are feeling

TASK 2: ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS IN FULL SENTENCES

1. Who is inside the windmill?
2. Have they been inside the windmill before?
3. Is the windmill a good place to shelter from the storm? Why/Why not?
4. What might happen next?
5. How might the characters be feeling?
6. Why are they asking themselves if lightning ever strikes the same place twice?

Remember: these are YOUR ideas. There are no right or wrong answers.

Steppingstone activity

Summer 1 - Week 1 - Lesson 3

LO: To generate story ideas

Task

Lightning never strikes twice, does it?

That was the question that occupied their frightened minds as they crouched, huddling together, next to the pile of dusty sacks in the base of the windmill.

It's time to use your imagination!

TASK 1: DRAW A PICTURE

Success Criteria:

1. Read the text again very carefully
2. Draw the setting
3. Draw the people you think are in the windmill
4. Show how they are feeling

TASK 2: ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS IN FULL SENTENCES

1. Who do you think is inside the windmill?
2. Is the windmill a good place to shelter from the storm? Why/why not?
3. What might happen next?
4. How might the characters be feeling?

Remember: these are YOUR ideas. There are no right or wrong answers.