LO: To make a prediction based on knowledge of a character

READ and LISTEN to chapters 18-20 (pp.138-162)

Vocabulary

beano booth – where people played bingo

automobile - car

jelly jar - jam jar

carousing - enjoying oneself with others in a noisy, lively way tailgate - a hinged flap at the back of a truck that can be lowered or removed when loading or unloading the vehicle

pants - trousers

triumph - a great victory or achievement

running board - a footboard along the side of a vehicle

What ails you? – What's the matter with you?

Task

Throughout the book, certain characters have gone through great changes e.g. we see how Fern is changing as she gets older: she is less interested in Wilbur and the animals and more interested in boys.

Wilbur has also changed a lot since the start of the book, mainly thanks to Charlotte. We are learning some new things about Charlotte. Think about what she means when she says:

"I guess I feel sad because I won't ever see my children."

"I have a feeling I'm not going to see the results of last night's efforts. I don't feel good at all. I think I'm languishing to tell you the truth."

"It means I'm slowing up, feeling my age. I'm not young any more, Wilbur."

Your task is to answer this question:

How do you think Wilbur would cope if Charlotte were no longer with him?

Think about:

- What Wilbur was like when he first met Charlotte
- What Charlotte has taught him
- What Wilbur has learnt about himself

Success Criteria:

- 1. Think carefully about how Wilbur has changed.
- 2. Write in full sentences.
- 3. Use appropriate words to describe personality features.
- 4. Organise your ideas into paragraphs.
