Facts about bullying

- Bullying can be one of the most upsetting things that can happen to someone, and unfortunately it's something that many people go through in their life .
- Bullying is never OK, and if you or someone you know experiences it there is a lot of help and support available – nobody should have to face bullying alone.
- If someone is doing things that make you unhappy at school, who can you go to for help at school?

- Bullying can take many different forms, and some are more obvious than others.
It can include –
- Teasing, humiliating or shaming someone
- Insulting someone or calling them names
- Ignoring or excluding someone, or leaving them out
- Making someone the punch line of jokes
- Spreading rumours about someone
- Sharing someone's personal information without their permission

Fact last page

- Pushing, hitting, kicking or physically hurting someone
- Taking or hiding someone's stuff
- Forcing someone to do something
- Threatening someone
- Encouraging other people to treat someone like that
- It can happen in person, online or on your phone; at home, at school or anywhere else; by one person or a group of people; all the time or every now and again.
