Canonbury earns Gold for the school garden

The judges scrutinise the beds and interview some Canonbury gardeners

This week two eminent judges from the London Children's Flower Society visited us to judge our garden - and we won Gold! Our gardener representatives did a fantastic job speaking to the judges.

Thank you to all our families for bringing dishes to the food festival, we had selections from six continents in the world! Special thanks to Muna, (Idris, Ilyaas, Manaar, Mahad's mum), for helping us to make this happen.

From the Headteacher

International Food Festival

We had a wonderful time at the food festival-when celebrating this today in assembly, I said we had food from every continent in the world - Amani and Cameron from Year 4 pointed out that 'we didn't have food from Antarctica, Patrick'. So I was caught out exaggerating, nevertheless dishes from six out of seven continents is impressive!

Well done Amani and Cameron, for your geographical precision. It was a wonderful social event with great home-made food, and music from Lucky on the steel pans. Thank you to everyone who brought in so many delicious dishes!

WELLBEING MORNINGS for Islington parents/carers

Global Generation are running a series of free sessions for parents/carers in Islington to boost wellbeing, combining nature connection walks with hands-on and reflective activities.

Sessions will involve activities at either the Story Garden or the Floating Garden in King's Cross where we will provide a space to share stories, skills and experiences as well as build new practical skills through food growing, cooking, storytelling, carpentry and more.

JUNE & JULY SESSIONS

28th June + 5th, 12th and 19th July

10:00 - 12:00

Children under 5 are welcome to join too.

The programme will continue weekly during term time from September 2022.
