

Year 5 Reading.

Tuesday 30th June 2020

LO: To look at key themes across writing.

Chapter 12: Mirror of the Erised. Audio link:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IWcdQ5BFyv8>

(If you haven't already finished reading/listening to the chapter, please do so today.)

In chapter 12, using his new, magical invisibility cloak, Harry explores Hogwarts and comes across a large mystical mirror. The mirror is named: Mirror of the Erised which is Desire spelt backwards. Both Harry and Ron have a turn at looking into the mirror which reflects their deepest desires!

Your Task: Harry and Ron's desires are quite different. Today you will explore the theme of desires and compare Harry and Ron's desires.

Success Criteria

1. Read the extract based on Harry's reflected image.
2. Read the extract based on Ron's reflected image.
3. Write what Harry sees in the mirror and how it makes him feel.
4. Write what Ron sees in the mirror and how this makes him feel.
5. Give your opinion on what is similar about what the boys see OR how they feel.
6. Give your opinion on what is different about what the boys see OR how it made them feel.

Answer the following:

What does Harry see in the mirror?
What does Ron see in the mirror?
How does Harry feel about what he sees in the mirror?
How does Ron feel about what he sees in the mirror?
What is a desire?
How do Harry and Ron's desires compare? How are they the same and how are they different?
Useful words Whereas, in comparison, although, contrastingly, on the other hand, however, though, even though, unlike, like share, similarity, alike

