

Task (with links):

Follow this link and learn more about WW2 <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/49562683> Read through the information on the link and add more detail to the relevant parts of yesterday's work. You can also create a new page for additional notes.

When you have watched through the videos and added more notes, complete the sentences below using the correct time adverbial

A time adverbial is a word or phrase, which tells us when the sentence is taking place.

1) _____ 1939, Britain declared war on Germany joining the biggest war in history.

Shortly before During This morning Not long

2) _____ the hatred of many Jewish people, led to the Holocaust.

Next year After a short period of time Eventually

3) _____ in 1929, the great depression hit leaving shortages of food and money all over the world.

Lately Next morning Soon after Before long

4) The Germans were told to leave Poland _____

that afternoon immediately last month later on in the day

5) Britain had been watching Hitler's work for _____ and were aware of the possibility of war.

a year a minute several years

EXT: Write 3-4 of your own sentences about the video using adverbials of time.