

Week 3, day 3.

LO: To consider how authors use language and its impact on the reader.

Chapter 10: Love-Hate.

Starter: Read chapter 10: Love-Hate.

Main Task:

Success Criteria:

1. Read the question carefully.
2. Go to the page number indicated.
3. Identify a quote to support a statement made in the question. Or reread the sentence/paragraph the quote is in to find out what it means.
4. Write your answer.

Questions:

1. Find and copy the sentence that indicates Kat is inconsistent with her behaviour towards Ted on page 75.
2. What effect do you think this has on Ted?
3. On page 76, Ted says that his mother thought he had a love-hate relationship with his sister. What is meant by this expression: love-hate relationship?
4. Find an example from their childhood that demonstrates Kat and Ted's love hate relationship.
5. Look at page 78. Ted says, 'I swallowed the hot, huffy feeling I had back down on my oesophagus.' What does this tell you about how Ted felt at the time?
6. On page 79, Kat said, 'What a bloody palaver' what do you think is meant by this expression and why?
7. Look towards the end of page 79. Find and copy the sentence which means, closest relative/family member.
8. Find and copy 2 examples in this chapter that demonstrates Ted's understanding of equality between men and women. Look at page 77 and 80.

Year 5 Reading

Week 3, day 3.

LO: To consider how authors use language and its impact on the reader.

Chapter 10: Love-Hate.

Starter: Read chapter 10: Love-Hate.

Main Task:

Success Criteria:

1. Read the questions.
2. Look at the table at the possible answers.
3. Match the correct answer to each question.

Questions:

1. Find and copy the sentence that indicates Kat is inconsistent with her behaviour towards Ted on page 75.
2. What effect do you think this has on Ted?
3. On page 76, Ted says that is mother though he had a love-hate relationship with his sister. What is meant by this expression: love-hate relationship?
4. Find an example from their childhood that demonstrates Kat and Ted's love hate relationship.
5. Look at page 78. Ted says, 'I swallowed the hot, huffy feeling I had back down on my oesophagus.' What does this tell you about how Ted felt at the time?
6. On page 79, Kat said, 'What a bloody palaver' what do you think is meant by this expression and why?
7. Look towards the end of page 79. Find and copy the sentence which means, closest relative/family member.
8. Find and copy 2 examples in this chapter that demonstrates Ted's understanding of equality between men and women. Look at page 77 and 80.

Match each answer to the correct question.

The man was in uniform; the woman wasn't and this meant the opposite of what you might think: that the woman was in charge.
Nurses are supposed to be women and I was a boy.
Ted was becoming angry and frustrated at his sister.
Because she is Salim's next of kin.
One moment she's telling me how brainy I am, the next she's assaulting me and telling lies.
This could make Ted feel uncomfortable and on edge as he doesn't know what to expect from his sister.
It means that something is a big fuss or unnecessary.
Kat was kissing her Ted's face then hit him with the hair brush.
They like each other and get along then they do not like each other and are not getting along.

