

Goodnight Mister Tom

We will be reading our way through different chapters of this book and you can access a copy of the book via this link:

<http://www.e4thai.com/e4e/images/pdf2/Top100novels/GoodnightMisterTom.pdf>

Audio link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=89zcxZqLPE>

Grammar starter: Sentence level work

Complete this refresher on improving your sentences. Sentences should include nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, conjunctions, and fronted adverbials.

A sentence requires the above elements to make it a 'sick sentence'. See if you can improve the sentence below.

He arrived at Tom's house.
Noun/s used:	Verb/s used:
Add/ improve adjectives to describe the noun/s:	Add/ improve adverbs to describe the verb/s:
Add a conjunction and extend the sentence:
Add a fronted adverbial:
Write an improved version of the sentence:

Now have a go of completing these sentences using the similar steps as above.

- Willie sat down in front of the fire
- He gripped the stick in his hand

Task (with links):

You will be using yesterday's plan to write a diary entry from a specific character's perspective. RED HOT: Tom's diary MILD and SPICY: William's diary

You are writing up until section 5 and 6 of your plan.

SUCCESS CRITERIA:

1)	First person
2)	Describe events, thoughts and feelings
3)	Include adverbials of time, place and manner
4)	Extend some sentences using conjunctions
5)	Informal grammar and vocabulary

Example:

After the _____ journey on the train, I arrived at the _____ house in the countryside. The old man, Mr Tom, seemed _____ but I knew that I had to be _____ no matter what. When we got _____ he told me to draw a mark on the wall! Why would he want me to do that? I was so _____.