

Task (with links):

1) Practise writing the words in your neatest handwriting and ensure that you have spelled them correctly.

2) Once you have written them out neatly, record them in a sentence. You could do a sentence which:

- Has an adverbial
- Includes a subordinate clause with a subordinating conjunction like, although, after, while or as
- Includes a relative clause with a relative pronoun, who, which, whose or that

EXT: Can you write a short story which includes all of these words?
