

Harry is excited for school and can't wait to share his dinosaurs with other children.

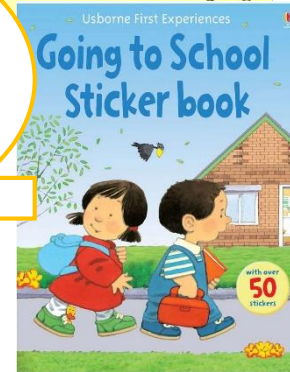

Lola thinks she should go to school like Charlie, but her imaginary friend thinks otherwise.

The girls don't want to leave their favourite teacher but get excited when they meet their new one and the new challenges.

Some sticker books highlighting different parts of the school day!

Starting School Stories
Talk to your child about how they feel starting school.
Support them in independence leading up to their first day.

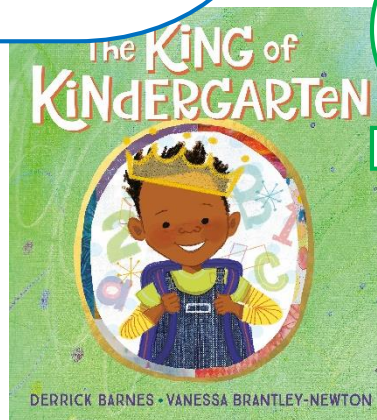

Stay positive!

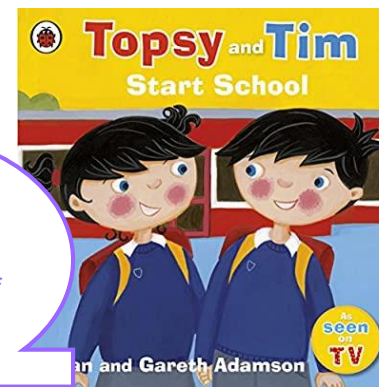

Blue Kangaroo is excited to start school with Lily, even though she thinks he is scared, like her.

King of Kindergarten is enthusiastic about starting school and gets ready by himself!

Topsy and Tim find out what to expect in different parts of the school day!

A fun book on what starting school might look like.

