

LO: TBAT select and record key information

Task (with links):

- 1) Watch the two videos on YouTube. While you are watching think carefully about the thoughts and feelings of the people in the clips.

 - 2) Choose to be either a player or a football fan and complete a profile like the example I have done. It does not have to be true! It's better it's your own ideas!
 - 3) You can draw your character, showing their appearance.
 - 4) Ensure that you complete the sentences and explain their thoughts or ideas.
- EXT: Could you create a character profile for a football manager or a referee?

My Name is: Steph Houghton

The teams I play for/support are:
England and Man City

I love these teams because: I love all my team mates, we have a laugh together and we train really hard. I feel proud to represent my country, it had always been my dream growing up.

It's really important that my team does well because:

When we lose, I:

Before a match, I feel:

When we win I: talk to my team mates about what went well because we always want to do better. We think about what to do in training before the next game.
