

Everyone is doing the same work today. Look at the story plan you made yesterday.

You are writing your own story. This is your final piece of writing for the year, so try to include all the features you have been taught.

The story can be about anything you like that the stimulus (picture/short film) made you think of:

<https://www.literacyshed.com/the-myths-and-legends-shed.html> The Girl and the Fox

