

We have looked in detail at the main features of instructions:

- purpose
- visual layout
- imperative verbs/adverbs
- time order/conjunctions

We have researched information about how and why Ancient Egyptians made their mummies.

You need to use all your skills to write the best set of instructions (for Anubis who cannot do modern writing) to make a mummy.....

Anubis-the jackal-headed God of the Dead

I have been disturbed from thirty centuries of sleep.
I have chosen you to be my messenger to the world.
You must teach the people of your strange modern world
the old ways of how to prepare for the afterlife.
If you succeed, your reward will be riches beyond belief and a seat beside me forever.

Success Criteria:

1. Remember all the steps to make a mummy.
2. Write a set of instructions to make a mummy.
3. Include all the features on the checklist.
4. Think carefully about clear, effective visual layout.

Extra challenge: Write a short introduction to explain why bodies are turned into mummies.

Make sure that your instructions contain adverbs and enough detail to make the instructions crystal clear to the reader.

Year 3 Writing

Steppingstone activity

Lesson 5

LO: To write instructions

We have looked at lots of instructions.

Write your own instructions today: How to make a mummy.

Title: How to

What you need:

What to do:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Pictures:

Success Criteria:

1. Think about what to do.

2. Write a short sentence to explain each step.

3. Include pictures and headings to make your steps clear.

