Food plays an important part in Spanish culture.

The Spanish usually eat much later than other Europeans, with lunch normally being eaten between 2pm and 4pm and dinner between 9pm and 11pm.

In this video learn how to say you do or don't like various foods.

You can ask questions about what others like to eat and drink by using the verbs comer (to eat) and beber (to drink).

For example:

- ¿Qué te gusta comer? - What do you like to eat?
- ¿Qué te gusta beber? - What do you like to drink?
- ¿Qué no te gusta comer y beber? - What don't you like to eat and drink?

You can respond to the question with your opinion, followed by the food or drink.

Then Click on the video where Maria and her friend make the Spanish speciality pan con tomate.

TASK: TO MAKE PAN CON TOMATE AT HOME! TAKE A PICTURE AND SEND IT TO US! AND ENJOY IT! DELICIOSO! YUMMMMM

Remember to use the correct definite article EL LA LAS LOS (the 4 word for 'the' in Spanish). For example:

- Me gusta el chocolate - I like chocolate.
- No me gusta el pollo - I don't like chicken.
- Me encanta la pizza - I love pizza.

Click on the downloadable vocabulary list to see more words for different foods and drinks.
